The St. Gregory VII Chapter of Catholics United for the Faith ( CUF ) has been active in the greater Milwaukee area for over thirty years. Catholics United for the Faith, Inc. is an international group of lay Catholics that was founded in 1968 by H. Lyman Stebbins, a convert to Catholicism. The mission of the apostolate is to:

“Support, Defend and Advance the Efforts of the Teaching Church.”

This local group provides eight newsletters per year, as well as meetings and programs. Among the programs is the annual Msgr. Popek Award Dinner at which a priest is recognized for his: a) zeal for the priesthood, b) leadership of the laity, and c) fidelity to the teaching authority of the Church. Msgr. Popek was the priest-founder of the St. Gregory VII Chapter. He embodied the three criteria used to identify the award recipients.

Those who are able to financially support the Chapter, with a contribution of at least $12.00 per year, will: a ) receive the Chapter Newsletters by First Class Mail, e-mail, or both, and b ) be able to buy Catholic books at discounted prices during Chapter events. Membership in the International organization includes a subscription to its bi-monthly magazine, Lay Witness. The International President of Catholics United for the Faith, Inc., located in Steubenville, Ohio, is Michael Sullivan. For more information go to www.cuf.org.
