MOST REVEREND CARLO MARIA VIGANO

Born in 1941 in Varese, Italy, Vignano was ordained a priest in 1968. He earned a doctorate in both canon and civil law. He entered the diplomatic service of the Holy See in 1973, and worked in Iraq and Great Britain. From 1978 to 1989, he held posts at the Secretariat of State. In 1992 Pope John Paul II appointed him Apostolic Nuncio to Nigeria. After that mission he served in the Secretariat of State as personnel chief for the Roman curia and Vatican diplomats. In 2009 he became Secretary General of the Governorate, and established centralized accounting procedures and accountability for cost overruns that helped turn a US$10.5 million deficit for the city-state into a surplus of $44 million in one year. Vignano, formerly the second ranked Vatican administrator to Pope Benedict XVI, requested not to be transferred for having exposed alleged corruption that cost the Holy See millions in higher contract prices. Nevertheless, on August 13, 2011 Secretary of State Tarcisio Bertone informed Vignano that Pope Benedict was appointing him Nuncio to the United States. Vignano's now famous whistleblower 11-page Testament* was published August 25, 2018.
